

Congratulations on your first Voter Report Card!

WHO YOU VOTE FOR is your secret. But whether you vote is public record.

The Voter Report Card on the back shows your voting attendance record. It's designed to help you keep track of how you're doing.

All citizens should have a voice in their government. Our democracy works best when everyone is a voter—including you.

THAT'S WHY we've selected you for this important research project. In the future, we hope to send you an updated Voter Report Card before each election.

If you're not sure where to vote, visit Vote411.org, an independent website. And ask about early voting options in your area.

AS A VOTER this year, you'll be joined by millions of fellow citizens. Many contests, though, will be so close that just a tiny number of votes will determine the outcome.

One of those crucial votes could be yours—but only if you're a voter.

Be a voter on Tuesday, Nov. 6 — or ask about early voting.

Terry Smith's Voter Report Card

You were a voter in four of the last five general elections, according to public records for your current address only.

That's better than average for your neighborhood.
